MYSTIC MOMENTS

At the HARVEST FESTIVAL RALLY...

A Pilgrim turkey dominated the decor for the annual Thanksgiving get-together for Pensacola Unit 29 at Mystic Cove Springs in McDavid. Nearly a dozen gift baskets were made for residents of The Terrace at Ivey Acres in Jay.

NEED RALLY Hosts??? If you can, please let Gloria know?

More Harvest...

Tom, Bob and Henry remove the Presidents' Name Board.

Past Pres. Wayne and Charlotte Donaldson enjoy (?) the Thanksgiving meal.

Charlotte plays "Ring the Turkey's Neck."

Fred Steinle learns dominos from his grandson, Ian.

Ron gets serious with Punkin' Bowling.

Upcoming Rallies - Please call the Host, (850) 256-3280 or Gloria (850) 623-4530, three days prior.

GLORIA'S GABBING

I am excited about our CHRISTMAS BIRTHDAY BLAST RALLY Dec. 12-14. Let's "light up the park" and decorate our Airstreams outside, inside or both. There will a prize for the best inside, best outside and overall decor. Don't forget to bring a $5-10 gift that is silver, white or blue. Ladies bring a gift for a lady, men bring a man's gift. If you bring a child, please bring them a gift. We are going to have a blast!

The Harvest Festival rally was well attended. It was good to see Jim Durham, Charlotte and Wayne Donaldson, Leslie and Danny Randall, Glenda Steinle, John and Sandy Stumpf and visitors George and Mary Lou Heppner from Oregon. We tried Hudson's cafe for lunch on Friday and found the food good and the atmosphere relaxing. They also have shopping.

Thanks to the cooks who prepared our meals. The food was excellent. Friday night was prepared by Cheryl Cherry and Saturday night by Pam Purdy. Pat Gregory brought a Thanksgiving decorated cake for dessert. Breakfast was prepared by Jim Durham, Ron Cherry, Jim Gregory and Tom Carter. Thanks fellas!

The men did some much needed trimming of the bushes around the sites and some limbs along the entrance. They also moved the presidents' plaques board and attached a new one made by Henry. It looks really nice!

The winners of our pumpkin bowling were Pam Purdy, 1st; with Bob McAuliffe, 2nd. Ring the Turkey's Neck winners were Bob McAuliffe, 1st; and Cheryl Cherry, 2nd. Bingo Blackout winner was Leslie Randall, who won four times in a row---twice after trading cards with Danny.

Thanks to Jim Gregory for making the poster to announce the winners, to Charlotte Donaldson for helping me prepare the pins for the bowling and to Margaret and Tony Skells for hosting the park.

We attended the service at McDavid First Methodist Church. It was a great weekend!

Celebrate with us a "Christmas Birthday Blast,"

Most of our birthdays this year have already past!

Bring a $5-$10 gift that is white, silver or blue

After dirty Santa, which gift will belong to you?

Trading after the game will be fine,

I might like yours and you might like mine.

All is fun but the most important birth to remember,

Our Savior's, which we celebrate on the 25th of December!
