GLORIA'S GABBING

What a great rally we had for the grandchildren! The theme was Dr. Seuss of Seussville. Friday afternoon the kids painted flowers for a flowerpot. They painted a pillow case with their own version of a Dr. Seuss character and watched the Lorax movie. Miss Cheryl Land read "Marvin K. Mooney Will You Please Go Now?" as the bedtime story.

On Saturday morning the children were greeted with a green eggs and ham breakfast. Some of them were skeptical about eating green eggs, but after a taste, decided they were very good. Mr. Tony read the book "Green Eggs and Ham". After a walk to the river and collecting trash on the road, they were guided on a hike where they encountered a 'hat tree' and a 'box hedge'. The host pavilion provided a great place for their picnic, while Gabriel and Christian's mom, Maureen, read the book "Yertle the Turtle".

The afternoon was filled drawing with sidewalk chalk, playing shuffleboard, ringing the bell for meals and to announce the arrival of Airstreamers. The boys won the first game of Stack the Turtles they had made from paper plates. The girls won the second game. Mr. Ron built a fire so everyone could roast their hot dogs. While waiting for the fire to die down, some of the kids dressed in costumes from their favorite Dr. Seuss book. We had Yertle the Turtle, Two Girls From Whoville, the Fox With Blue Socks, Thing One and Thing Two, and One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish. After dinner our special guests, Paul and Mary Ann Morrell-The Cats in the Hats, arrived. After a little magic and introducing most of their characters from the Seuss books, they read "The Cat in the Hat". Then the children were told they were going to make a big mess but would have to clean it up afterward. The Cat poured out a big box of cups, drumsticks and many shapes that were all like drums. As loud music played the kids enjoyed beating the drums, stacking the cups and making noise. What fun they had!! (Now, how do you calm kids down for the night after a long exciting day???) All in all, the grandchildren (eleven of them) had a ball. It was a fun-filled weekend. Thanks to our clowns Mary Ann and Paul for the interesting entertainment!

Tony and Pam enjoy finding the major water leak geyser. Several volunteers dug for part of three days trying to locate it. Thank you ALL!

On Sunday morning we had a children-led devotion. They prayed, quoted their favorite verses and sang 'Jesus Loves Me.' It was really sweet - the perfect ending to our Grandparent's Rally.

Unit 029 was awarded a Superior Merit for 2015!!! Good job everyone!

We need an alternate delegate for the delegate meeting in Lewisburg at the International. If you are attending and are willing to serve, please let Gloria know. The delegates will vote on two amendments as per your instruction. There will be a general membership meeting on Saturday for your decisions on these amendments. See the rally schedule. The amendments can be found in the May issue of Blue Beret, pages 11 and 12.

SPRING FLING LUAU

Come to the rally, it is sure to be fun

The weather is great, we should have sun.

Can you dance the hula or go low with limbo?

At least trying should be quite a show!

Dress like the Islanders and you're in style.

Be a part of the slower pace for a while.

This weekend we will be on Island Time

Leaving our hectic schedules behind.
